

Love Comes

Love comes.

From what depths does Love arise?

Oh, Love comes.

From what heights does Love descend?

Ah! Love comes.

From what wonderful wonder does Love come?

I wonder.

From what wonder is Love derived?

I wonder.

From what wonder is Love devised?

From what wonder does Love come alive?

I only know that Love comes,

That Love comes.

When Love comes,

Know there is no Other.

When Love comes,

Know there is no Nothing.

When Love comes,

You know the unreasonable reason for Life!

Blessed are your days

When Love comes.

Let Love come

Always and forever,

Always and eternally.

Infinitely here and now,

Ah, now Love comes.

Love comes.
